SEMI-WEEKLY—TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

VOL. XLIX. UPLAND, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1943. NO. 60.

ONLY SIX LOCAL YOUTHS HELD BY POLICE IN YEAR

Upland police department during the year has apprehended 28 boys and six girls under 18 years of age with only six of this total being children of local families, the others being from other communities and other states.

This information was presented as one of the interesting highlights of the meeting of the Upland Coordinating council in the Girl Scout clubhouse last night. Police Chief Eugene L. Mueller submitted the figures and the fact that only six were from Upland was cited as proof that juvenile delinquency is not a serious problem here.

All of the 34 cases were handled locally, none of the offenders being sent to the juvenile court in San Bernardino, the officer reported.

The local department has been alert in apprehending run-away youths, who accountned for most of the total reported.

Mrs. P. W. Rohrbaugh, chairman, presided at last night's meeting with the council members hearing reports on plans for the "Teen Age" party to be held Saturday night. Mrs. Eva G. Moore reported on this activity.

Discussion was held as to the advisability of Upland participating in the opportunity of having the local schools include a weekday class of religious education. A recent state law permits a study of the Bible and Mrs. Rohrbaugh was authorized to represent the council on the Ministerial Union committee, which is studying the proposal.

It was reported that the after-school recreational program had been temporarily discontinued and that consideration would be given to the possibility of maintaining a part-time program, if needed.

All organizations in the community will be asked to have a representative on the coordinating council and attend meetings of the group.

Two Fined $50 Result Of Fight; MacLean Is Injured

Fines of $50 each were paid by Trino Sefuntes and Joe S. Sanchez in the city court yesterday as an aftermath of an alleged altercation occurring in Willy's place Sunday night. These two men were held after other suspects of the fight were released.

The men pleaded guilty to drunkeness and disorderly conduct before Judge Mildred R. Puckett.

Eddie MacLean was injured as the result of an attack and police are hunting for a suspect who wielded a knife, the Uplander suffering a stab on the left side of his body. He narrowly missed more serious injuries, according to attendants at the Green Memorial hospital, where he was taken for treatment.

MacLean was playing the music box when he was accosted by an unidentified man. A group gathered around and in the melee MacLean was stabbed. Police were called.

Ration Board Panels Meet Regularly and Schedule Announced

Various panels of the Ontario-Upland ration board maintain regular meeting dates and announcement of the schedule is made today.

The food panel meets every Wednesday from 1 to 3 p. m., and the price panel convenes from 2 to 4 p. m. every Thursday. Members of the panel handling tires, bicycles, boots and stoves meets from 3 to 4:30 p. m., from Monday through Thursday.

Thief on Bus Is Held; Fined $50 Here

Theft of a woman's overnight bag from a Pacific Electric bus resulted in the arrest here of Genaro Hernandez, Rialto. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $50 in the city court here yesterday.

Hernandez was a passenger on the bus. He observed that Jacqueline Gilhooly, San Bernardino, another passenger, fell asleep. When the bus stopped here he alighted with the woman's bag. Driver of the bus detected the alleged theft and police were called.

Commando Specialist, Sergt. Zimmerman, Home on Furlough

Commando tactics have been the specialty of Staff Sergeant Chris Zimmerman, who has arrived in Upland with his wife, the former Frances Graves.

In June, 1942, the Uplander was sent overseas to take British commando training in Scotland and later he returned to this country to teach that specialty to other soldiers at the amphibious training base, Fort Pierce, Florida.

Sergeant Zimerman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, 536 North First avenue. His wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graves, 671 East Ninth street.

Joining Company G of the National Guard in 1943, Sergeant Zimmerman remained with this group until June, 1942. Mrs. Zimerman will remain here with her parents when the sergeant returns to Florida.

TEEN AGE PARTY IS OPEN TO ALL

Emphasis is placed on the fact that every young Uplander between 14 and 17 years of age is invited and will be welcomed, to the first of a series of parties that will be held Saturday night. The Girl Scout club house on Third avenue will be the scene of the informal get-together with a wide variety of games and dancing scheduled.

Selection of a name for the group will be one feature of the evening. Known unofficially as the "Teen Age" group, the young people will choose a name and many suggestions will be welcomed Saturday night.

Committees of young people have been at work for several weeks in preparing for Saturday's party. Refreshments will be served. A 25-cent attendance charge will include one month's membership fee in the new recreational club. The clubhouse will be open every Friday and Saturday night as a meeting place for the group with a scheduled party being planned at least once a month.

Mrs. Eva G. Moore, who has taken the lead in the new group, has emphatically announced that while the club will have adult sponsors, all plans will be made by the young people. She has received the whole-hearted cooperation of many parents and keen interest is reported among the young people. A juke box has been obtained for the party.

License Renewals May Be Made In Advance, Motorists Advised

Operators and chauffeur's licenses may be renewed three months prior to expiration and since this is the case motorists are advised to act now rather than renew their licenses expiring in January and February.

During the first months of the year the state department of motor vehicles is unusually busy issuing new auto license plates.

John H. Pratt, local examiner for the state department, is at the Upland chamber of commerce office on Monday and at the Ontario city hall Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, from 9:15 a. m. to 1 p. m., and from 2 to 4 p. m.

Rental Official To Be Here Again On Saturday

W. L. Albertson of the rent control office in San Bernardino, will be in Upland again Saturday to interview persons with questions about the rental ceilings and other problems.

Here last Saturday, Mr. Albertson interviewed more than 20 persons and because of the demand for his services arrangements were made for him to return this week.

The Upland chamber of commerce office is the meeting place and all interested persons are invited to confer with him.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD BOY RUN OVER BY AUTOMOBILE

His little body bruised when run over by a wheel of an automobile, Lloyd Hensley narrowly escaped serious injuries in an automobile-pedestrian accident at Second avenue and Ninth street yesterday afternoon.

Rushed by ambulance to a doctor's office, the youth was found to be suffering bruises only.

He was removed to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hensley, 60 C street.

Driver of the automobile was Frank Davis, who resides on Fourteenth street near Mountain avenue. Headed east on Ninth street, he had come to a stop at Second avenue. He had started up when he felt his automobile hit something.

The driver said he did not see the youth, who apparently was hidden from view by the car's fender.

With classmates, the little boy had gone to the Upland business district on his scooter bike. Little Lloyd and his associates were crossing Ninth street going north.

"I was told by a woman who said she saw the accident that the front right wheel of the car passed over my boy's body," explained Mrs. Hensley this morning, who also expressed thankfulness that the lad escaped with no more serious injuries. Her son told her, she said, that he did not see the automobile.

Mr. Davis' alertness in stopping suddenly is credited with saving the lad from suffering more seriously. His estimated speed in starting up after observing the stop sign was five miles an hour.

In an explanation to authorities about the accident, Mr. Davis said: "I came to a stop and just after passing the cross walk, I felt the car hit something. Someone said 'Back up a little', and when I got out a little boy was laying by the car on his back."

Happening as it did in the downtown area, the accident attracted the attention of many persons.

Mrs. A. J. Robinson, Wilson avenue, is anticipating the arrival late this week of her son, Gerald Ferrari, who is coming from Buckley field, Denver, on a 10-day furlough. He is being transferred to another air corps training field and he will be here to visit for a short time.

FOOD FUND GOES UP THIS WEEK

Forty-five dollars went right by the Jack Davis residence, West Twenty-third street, last night, since Mr. and Mrs. Davis did not have Dividend day sales slips. Their residence is listed on page 25, line 44, in The News' residential directory. A consolation prize of $1 was given them and Saturday's jackpot will total $69.

Food store sales slips are valuable this week. One slip will be worth $25 at 6 p. m. Thursday—providing that slip comes from a food store advertising in The Upland News today, and providing a purchase of at least $1 has been made on either Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

Sales slips may be obtained from more than one store, but the total Wednesday-Thursday purchases must be at least $1.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Norman, 409 East Eleventh street, had an opportunity to win $15 last Thursday, but they lost the opportunity by not having the required sales slip or slips. Their residence address was selected from The News' complete residential directory. Food stores participating in the food advertising fund are Johnson's grocery, Safeway, Anderson's market, Olson's market, Clint's produce, Lee's market and Walker's market.

Veteran of 50 Rescue Trips to "Devil's Backbone" Tells of Eqperiences and Issues Warning

The greatest authority on the topography of famous Mt. Baldy is one of Upland's city councilmen, Ernest "Tweed" Stone. It is because of approximately 50 trips that he has made to various spots on the peak, most often to a particular spot on the north slope 3,000 feet from the summit, where he has rescued at least a half-hundred would-be alpine climbers.

"It all happens," Mr. Stone related, "when someone fails to heed warnings given by the forest service to stay off 'Devil's backbone'—the approach to the top of Baldy."

3000 FEET FALL

The Devil's backbone is a precipitous ridge, sometimes reaching the narrow width of three feet, whereby a climber reaches the top. If he slips to the north side of the path, he is greeted by a three thousand foot slide on jagged rocks during the summer, and a faster trip on ice during the winter season. "The chances of living to relate the experiences are about 2 to 8 against you," he said.

Since Mr. Stone made his "first trip in" to rescue a fallen climber in 1929, he has learned much about human nature under stress. "Usually the victim, if he isn't killed outright, retains consciousness until he hears us coming, which is about 12 hours after he has fallen, and then he goes out like a light."

NOTES WHERE TO LOOK

When a climber "makes the plunge", Mr. Stone is usually notified first, because he has gained the reputation of being the man who knows how to get there first, the route usually being the long way through Lytle Creek. He can tell exactly where to search after talking to a witness to the fall—and there has always been a witness to report so far.

The most difficult rescue hike that Mr. Stone remembers was started with 11 in the party, among them Sam Barker of Upland, who often makes the arduous climbs. The victim was a young boy. The ice was about 15 feet thick in most places on the north slope, and every step had to be hacked out with shoe spikes. Before going far, two of the party slipped and broke legs, and had to be carried back, while Mr. Stone and Ike Bayer, forest ranger, finally made the rescue.

NOT FOR SKIING

He helped with 14 rescues in 1938. Last year there was only one—a native girl of Nicaragua who had skied in Switzerland and Sweden, but who found the slopes of Old Baldy not adapted to such sport. She escaped with a broken leg and a lonesome wait of seven hours for the rescuers.

The American magazine considered Mr. Stone's work so outstanding that they printed an article about it. Since the war, the range above upper San Antonio canyon has been closed, and Mr. Stone hopes to get a rest for the duration.

But he smiled and said, "Before, it was only dangerous to go up there, but now it is illegal to find yourself falling off Mt. Baldy."

3 COMMUNITIES START FUND DRIVE

A three-community drive for war chest funds is being started in Cucamonga, Alta Loma and Etiwanda this week, the goal being $5,250. Sum of $4,200 will go to 14 war relief agencies and $1,050 will be spent locally on Boy and Girl Scouts and the Salvation Army.

Plans for the campaign were made at a meeting of interested citizens and those present included Ed Appell, R. J. Doyle, Wallace T. Stoebe, Lawrence Mueller, John Klusman, Henry Klusman, Charles Hogancamp, Harry Cain, Herbert C. Hall, A. W. Walker, Rev. Carl Doss, Leslie Foster, Clifton Chappell, and Walter J. Feree.

YULE TREE TO BE PLACED ON EUCLID

This city will have a huge, white-sprayed Christmas tree illuminated by spotlights. It will be placed at Euclid avenue on the south side of Foothill boulevard to help spread the Christmas spirit to all in the community and to all persons using the busy arteries.

Brilliant ornaments will be placed on the tree and early next month Upland will have what is expected to be one of the most distinctive Christmas-time decorations along the foothills.

Plans are being completed for placing of the tree and its decorating.

Suitable decorations are also planned for the business district. Eugene L. Mueller is chairman of the chamber of commerce special events committee in charge of the December decorations. He made a recent inspection of other towns as part of the preparations for planning for the Yule atmosphere here.

Funds for the downtown decoration have been contributed by Upland merchants and Secretary James V. Latimer of the chamber of commerce reports wide interest in the project.

REPUBLICANS PLAN FOR ACTIVITY

Organization of a West End unit of the California Republican assembly was effected Friday night, with Earl E. Marsh, who had served as temporary chairman, being named chairman. He presided at the meeting, attended by 31 men and women.

Among the committee appointments were the following: Judge Fred H. Jacobs, membership; E. Tweed Stone, Elephant club ($10 or more membership fee), and Allan S. Barr, program.

Regular membership fee is $1, but as a means of obtaining additional revenue, the "Elephant Club" was made feature of group.

A meeting will be held in December, at which time permanent officers will be named.

JESS MONROE SELLS TO GUY SMALL

After many years in the garage business, Jess Monroe announced the sale of his equipment at 61 East Arrow highway to Guy W. Small. Mr. Monroe, who has been located at 61 East Arrow highway, has made no plans for the immediate future, other than to care for his citrus grove on West Thirteenth street.

Mr. Small, an electrician, immediately on assuming the new property, began plans for the opening of a completely equipped machine shop and will also conduct a refrigerator repair service as well as an electrical repair department.

Chris Miller, an employe at the Monroe garage, will continue to work there for Mr. Small and Maurice Juno, a specialist in maintaining refrigerators, will also be employed by Mr. Small.

Mr. Small, who resides at 1637 West Ninth street, expressed appreciation for being able to obtain the Monroe garage location and stated that the finest possible service would be given in the maintenance of refrigerators and other equipment.

Mr. Small is a former Upland businessman and has resided in this area for several years.

WIDENING HIGHWAY TO BE PART OF POST-WAR WORK

Attention of post-war planners in this area at present is centered on highway construction with the widening of Valley boulevard between Ontario and Colton definitely included in a recommendation to the state highway commission.

The highway will be widened to four lanes, the same as it is from Ontario west.

Learning that this county's needs have been recognized, the county board of supervisors yesterday adopted a resolution commending the state highway commission "for the foresight in beginning the preparation for post-war activity" and "for the careful consideration accorded the needs of the state highway system" within the county.

The commission recently authorized a $75,000,000 highway building program and authorized presentation of plans and specifications and purchase of rights-of-way.

Widening of the highway is recognized as one of the major needs in the West End of the county. Serving as it does various industries, the highway carries many trucks as well as passenger cars along with heavy military traffic.

Discarded Clothing Sought Immediately In Local Drive

While some interest is being shown by Uplanders in the campaign to obtain discarded clothing, considerable more activity is sought immediately by the leaders in the salvage drive.

Lists of materials wanted and not wanted are posted in local store windows and were also published in The News last Friday. Residents are urged to check this list immediately, clean out their wardrobes and to get supplies on the way to residents of conquered countries. A portion of the contributions will be retained here for local welfare use.

The discarded clothing is to be taken to either the Presbyterian, Methodist or Episcopal churches or to the Upland chamber of commerce office. Howard N. Mason is chairman of the salvage drive committee.

Mrs. William Morley, who has been at San Antonio Community hospital since Oct. 2 with a fractured hip, has returned to her home, 281 Eighth avenue.

MANY TO ATTEND CHURCH BENEFIT

Wide interest is being shown in the benefit dinner for the Cucamonga Community church to be held Wednesday evening in Alta Loma Communinty hall.

Speaker of the evening will be Dr. Phillip Merlan, formerly a professor of philosophy at the University of Vienna, who is now on the faculties of both Redlands university and Claremont colleges.

Dr. Merlan, who is a refugee from Poland, will relate his experiences in fleeing to Poland when the storm troopers entered Austria. He was in Warsaw when that city was bombed, and he will tell also of his escape from there to the United States.

Proceeds from the $5 dinner will be used for new furnishings for the church.

Herbert C. Hall is general chairman in charge of arrangements. The Rev. and Mrs. Carl Doss head the dinner committee, and they are being assisted by women of the church; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Van Antwerp are in charge of decorations. On the finance committee are J. G. Stoebe, E. R. Hively, H. J. Chandler, J. C. Powellson, Mrs. A. R. Capen and Mrs. Ray R. Ford; and Leslie Foster is publicity chairman.

Junior members of the church will serve the dinner.

$11,461 In Building Construction for Month Adds to Total

Valuation of repairs, alterations and new construction started in Upland this month totals $11,461 to make the new total for 1943 of $327,277.75, according to Building Inspector Richard Derby.

One hundred and fifty-nine permits have been issued so far this year as compared with 107 for the first 11 months of 1942. Last year's total up to Nov. 30 was only $48,265.28.

Among recent building permits are the following: W. E. Kelsey for roof repair of residence at 244 North First avenue; Ernest Bailey, 816 West Arrow highway, for new garage; Cecil Chambers, 469 Third avenue, new garage, and Christian Krehbiel, 708 Second avenue, for new garage.

BIBLE STUDY BY STUDENTS PLANNED

Possibilities of including a Bible study course in conjunction with the Upland schools is being studied by a committee recently appointed by the Upland Ministerial Union. The five-man committee is empowered to select a teacher and to formulate a curriculum, according to the Rev. Earl Salzman, president of the Union.

When the preliminaries are completed, it is the plan of the ministerial union to ask the Upland board of education for permission to conduct the religious education course.

Such instruction, if permitted, will be offered as some place other than in the public school buildings but during regular school hours, the official explained.

The California legislature passed an enabling act permitting religious instruction for all children who had their parents' consent.

Named o the committee to select a teacher and to plan the course are Dr. Henry G. Brubaker, chairman; Rev. Donald G. Stewart, Rev. Will South, Wiley W. Mather and L. J. Horsch.

No imediate action is contemplated since it is the union's plan to give full study to the preliminaries prior to presenting the question to school officals..

Members of the Upland Coordinating Council unofficially endorsed the proposal last night in asking the council chairman, Mrs. P. W. Rohrbaugh, to contact the ministerial union.

Mr. and Mrs. Towo Stevens, who recently came to Upland from Los Angeles, are offering rock steam baths in especially prepared facilities at their residence, 352 East Foothill boulevard.

This is the residence and citrus grove owned for many years by F. A. Dickley, assayer, who recently sold the property and moved to Los Angeles. Mr. Stevens is an experienced operator of steam baths and invites the general public to visit his new project here.

Miss Ruth Belcher has been pledged to Delta Delta Delta sorority at U. S. C., and in joining this group she follows her sister, Laura Jean, who is already a member. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Belcher, 221 East Eleventh street.

GEORGE HAMILTON HURT IN CRASH; WOMAN IS KILLED

One of the community's longtime aged residents is at the San Antonio Community hospital with branches of his jugular vein severed and an Ontario woman is dead as the result of traffic accidents in this area over the week end.

George N. Hamilton, 80 years of age, is at the hospital, he being injured in a crash on Foothill boulevard at Carnelian avenue Friday night. His condition is reported to be not serious, although he suffered shock and considerable loss of blood.

Mrs. Nellie McClellan, 311 East E street, Ontario, was instantly killed last night when, as a pedestrian, she was crossing Euclid avenue at E street. Driver of the car was Mrs. Byllye Abbott, Altadena, who was going north on Euclid avenue.

An inquest to officially review circumstances of the crash opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Richardson mortuary, Ontario.

The driver said she observed two women crossing the avenue as she approached E street. One woman is reported to have stopped and the other proceeded. Mrs. McClellan's skull was fractured.

As to Mr. Hamilton's accident, it occurred as he turned off of Foothill to go onto Carnelian avenue. His machine was struck by a westbound machine, driven by Capt. Milton D. Feltenstein, Camp Young. Both cars were badly damaged.

Sea Scouts Back From Week-End Activity

Nine members of the "Sea Scouts" from Upland returned on Sunday afternoon from Newport Beach, where they attended a three-day rendezvous of their organization. With their skipper, Jim Pinney of Ontario, the boys spent the three days following navy routine and learning the "lingo".

The purpose of the Sea Scouts, according to Mr. Pinney, is to prepare boys for service in the United States navy when they reach military age. The organization is a branch of the Boy Scouts of America, and members hold ranks comparable to those in the regular navy.

At the rendezvous the Scouts studied swimming, life saving, and naval history, according to Neil Taylor, Upland Scout spokesman. One of the highlights of the meeting, he said, was the dance on Saturday night with the "Mariners", the girls' auxiliary of the WAVES.

Attending from Upland were Neil Taylor, J. C. Shoemaker, Bob Price, Carl Huckabay, Phillip Clark, Boris Cherbak, Richard Musser, and Harold Watkins.

Republicans Have Hope of Victory— In Fact Nation Is Now "Republican"

There is hope among the Republicans and the new local G.O.P. organization is coming into being with determination and with fairly good prospects of getting places.

Without waiting for next year's presidential election, the nation has already gone Republican—and the Rooseveltian party is now the minority party.

Twenty-six states now have Republican governors or will have as soon as the newly-elected governors of Kentucky and New Jersey take office. These 26 states together, command more than a majority of all the votes in the electoral college—enough to elect the president in 1944.

For 12 years, the local Republican organization has had the odds against it. Of course, the fact that a state has a Republican governor doesn't necessarily mean that the state is "Republican". It does indicate, however, a tendency or a "swing" and the objective of the new local group and Republican organizations throughout the nation is to give added impetus to the "swing".

Blood Plasma Pictures Emphasize Need of Full Support Here

Another chapter has been added to that gripping Los Angeles Times picture of an American soldier, injured in Sicily, receiving blood plasma. This soldier, his right arm virtually shattered, was given the life-saving plasma—and he has returned to his home in Los Angeles.

The picture, showing in the background a war-shattered and exhausted Sicilian family observing the plasma transfusion, was published in The Times this summer.

The pictorial story has a point here—residents of this community will have an opportunity to become blood plasma donors early in January. What happened to this soldier could happen to any other soldier, including our local boys.

The quota for blood donors here has been greatly increased. Uplanders surely cannot fail to meet the demand. Think about the story in these pictures—and sign up with either Ernest Gibson or Mrs. Paul Adams.

The Patton Incident— And Pearl Harbor Commanders

General Patton no doubt deeply regrets the act that has caused such a furor.

Even great heroes often have their less noble moments and surely the distinguished general would like to erase what will forever remain a blot on his record. He has publicly admitted there was no excuse for his act. Everyone agrees to that—based on the reports that have come out of the confusion surrounding the incident.

While it was a disgraceful act, it appears to us the incident was too trivial to gain so much public attention. The Pearl Harbor commanders committed a far more disgraceful and tragic blunder that caused gold stars on hundreds of service flags—instead of a red face on one soldier.

If the horribly negligent Pearl Harbor commanders can escape with their personal freedom, General Patton's reprimand and public denunciation might be enough.

Harland Hogue To Address Presbyterian Women Thursday

The Rev. Harland Hogue of Claremont will be the afternoon speaker, and there will be special Christmas music.

Officers of Eastern Star Installed In Rites Sunday

Approximately 200 members and guests from other chapters in the district from Covina to San Bernardino and Riverside witnessed the impressive candlelight ceremony held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Masonic hall, when Mrs. Dorothy Garrett and her staff of officers of Upland chapter, Order of Eastern Star, were installed.

The chapter room was decorated with colored tumbleweeds, carrying out a motif of pink and blue, the colors chosen for the coming year. June Havil and Nancy McDonald lighted the candles in the candelabra in the East and West.

Orton P. Brady, past patron of the chapter, served as master of ceremonies. The installing staff included Mrs. Marian M. Pierce, retiring worthy matron, and John Scott, retiring worthy patron, installing matron and patron; Mrs. Ward Fisher of Pomona, deputy grand matron of this district, installing grand matron, assisted by Mrs. Anna K. Anderson and Mrs. Ray C. Norton, past matrons; Miss Eunice Mitchell, installing chaplain; Mrs. E. B. Trent, installing marshal, and Mrs. Francis S. Wagner, installing organist.

Entrance of the officers-elect was followed by a vocal selection, "The Lord's Prayer", by Loren Welch, of Ontario. George P. Von Stein escorted the national flag, and Ruth Garrett, daughter of the new matron, placed the Holy Bible. Lighted candles were placed on the altar by Barbara Shell, Marjorie Lee, Diane Richardson and Nancy Richardson.

Mrs. Garrett was gowned in light blue and carried a bouquet of pink and blue flowers. The other officers-elect wore white gowns, and their bouquets of pink chrysanthemums were tied with pink and blue ribbons and were centered with pink and blue candles.

The escort included present grand officers, past grand officers, worthy matrons and patrons of 1943, and past matrons and patrons of Upland chapter.

Officers installed besides Mrs. Garrett, worthy matron, were Dr. James V. Latimer, worthy patron; Mrs. Lloye E. Gilmore, associate matron; Earl E. Dunning, associate patron; Mrs. Charles O. Deverts, secretary; Miss Ada Cooper, treasurer; Mrs. Sam L. Lamb, conductress; Mrs. J. L. Grahame, associate conductress; Mrs. J. T. Salisbury, chaplain; Mrs. Merl D. Kough, marshal; Mrs. Francis S. Wagner, organist; Miss Mina Ruesink, warder, and the five rays of the emblematic star: Mrs. E. B. Trent, Adah; Mrs. William C. Malcolm, Ruth; Mrs. J. V. Latimer, Esther; Mrs. William Cooper, Martha, and Mrs. J. J. Wortham, Electa.

During the ceremony Mr. Welch sang three other numbers, "My Friend", "Ave Maria", and "Evening Star". The Rev. John A. Luther, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, pronounced the benediction.

Ushers were Nicholas W. Brian, J. B. Browning, Charles O. Deverts, Homer T. Goslin, Walter W. Horak, and Harry C. Kennedy.

Following the installation, a reception was held in the dining hall, which was decorated to represent a garden. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of pink camellias and blue delphimum, with pink and blue candles. Mrs. Isabelle Wisely and Mrs. T. M. Nichols poured.

Mrs. Lloyd E. Gilmore was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the affair, and was assisted by Mrs. Sam L. Lamb and Mrs. Thomas H. Settle.

CHECK CASHING RULES OUTLINED

Chief of Police Eugene L. Mueller today issued warning to those receiving or cashing checks to be watchful for mail thieves and forgers who are usually active in the holiday season. The government is now issuing millions of checks to dependents of men in the armed forces and too many of these are being stolen and forged, the official said. An alarming factor has developed in that many of these forgers prove to be juveniles—both boys and girls in their teens.

It is suggested that the following rules be observed:

TO THOSE WHO RECEIVE CHECKS

1—Never endorse a check until you are actually in the presence of the person who will cash it.

2—Keep a good, deep mail box. Have your name clearly printed on it. KEEP IT LOCKED!

3 — Whenever possible, have your mail carrier deliver checks in person rather than to your box.

4—If you change your address, notify the post office immediately.

5—Cash your check at the same place each month. CASH IT YOURSELF! DON'T SEND CHILDREN TO CASH CHECKS! This encourages juvenile delinquency.

6—DO NOT FOLD, PIN OR MUTILATE ALLOTMENT OR ALLOWANCE CHECKS!

TO THOSE WHO CASH CHECKS

1 — KNOW YOUR ENDORSER!

2—Ask for positive identification. Before you cash a check, ask yourself this question: "If this check is returned, can I find the person who gave it to me?"

3—NEVER CASH A CHECK ALREADY ENDORSED. Have it endorsed again in your presence.

4—Require that all employees who cash checks shall initial them.

The secret service has been engaged in a campaign of crime prevention for some years, which brought a decrease of 97 per cent in counterfeiting and it is believed a like effort in suppressing the theft and forgery of checks will produce similar beneficial results. Since many of the offenders are juveniles, it is hoped this campaign will keep these youngsters out of trouble and also save taxpayers money in the reduction of time expended in investigation and the expense of maintaining offenders in penal institutions.

Mrs. Mary A. Eckerman returned Sunday evening to her home, 477 North Euclid avenue, from Long Beach, where she spent about a week visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. King, and her sister, Mrs. D. M. Hunt. On the holiday a family reunion was held at the King home.

Harold J. Stickney returned Friday to Silver Lake after spending a several days' vacation with Mrs. Stickney and their daughters at their home on Terrace drive, San Antonio Heights. On Thanksgiving day the Stickney family had as dinner guests the Rev. and Mrs. Paul F. Huebner, their daughter, Margaret, and Mr. Huebner's mother, all of Glendale. The Huebners formerly lived in Upland, when Mr. Huebner was pastor of the Methodist church.

POLICE TRAINING BRINGS CHANGES

Outstanding value of the merit system in police organizations is cited in another installment in a discussion of law enforcement problems by Police Chief Eugene L. Mueller:

In 1829, the forerunner of modern police departments was organized in England by Sir Robert Peel, from whose given name the English "Bobbie" gained its present day quip title. Although there existed the Irish Constabulary, the famed Gendarmerie of France, as well as other similar bodies elsewhere, the American police seem to have acquired much from earlier English methods. Colonial America employed the "watch-ward" system, and the watchman was also the "Town Crier". In case of trouble he notified the village constable, who then took charge of the situation. Under this plan the watchman was appointed by the "ward boss" for whom he was a political henchman, usually. In 1845 America adopted England's metropolitan police system, a decided advancement, and the advent of civil service in 1873 aided in raising the American police standards. It was indeed a far cry from the watchman who walked nightly through the streets of old London, shouting "Twelve o'clock, and all's well", to the modern police officer in his radio patrol car.

FUTURE AHEAD

An ancient custom has been expanded into a highly specialized modern science, a science that is still advancing and expanding constantly. It is probable that few fields of human endeavor can display more attainment and future promise since their inception than that of law enforcement. Where the police officer's duties once were few and simple, they are now many and involved.

It is, however, a self-evident fact that law enforcement has accomplished only as much in the control and prevention of crime as the public has permitted. This is especially true of the American police and it applies directly to the present concept of possible policing of the world. The human being by nature resents restraint, and although the necessity for some form of social regulation may be generally conceded, the peace officer finds it difficult to enforce any law that is objectionable to the public. A classic example of this is the Eighteenth Amendment. On the other hand, when the virtue of a measure is recognized the business of its enforcement is simplified. In short, the factor of public relations is vital in police work.

POLICE RECOGNIZED

In the past, it has been an unfortunate habit of Americans to take the police officer more or less for granted, and with little thought as to his problems, qualifications or his potentialities. However, of late years a marked improvement can be noted in this respect. At last the American people are becoming more "police conscious". The civic official takes justifiable pride in his local police department and cites its achievements as examples of attainable excellence. The householder is quick to appreciate the prompt and efficient aid that a well equipped police department can render in an emergency; while industrial leaders and business people realize that the success of commerce is dependent upon the maintenance of law and order.

Perhaps the greatest strides in law enforcement have been made since the advent of J. Edgar Hoover as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice. Prior to Director Hoover taking command of the F. B. I., it was just another agency of government to which public officials, senators and congressman had authority to appoint friends and political henchmen. Mr. Hoover worked diligently to correct the evils of the spoils system and through the enactment of legislation provided the merit or civil service plan for the F. B. I., setting forth a high level of entrance qualifications technical skill requiring a constant in-service training program.

The result is that from a practically unheard-of police agency, the Federal Bureau of Investigation is today the outstanding police organization in the world.

The same merit plan of operation is being launched in municipal police departments. The day when police work was considered a matter of day labor is long past. The necessity for preparatory training and basic qualifications, technical skill and an in-service training program to be alert to ever changing conditions is obvious. In the near future it will be necessary for persons desiring to enter law enforcement work as a profession to first secure a state certificate of proficiency, which can only be obtained after pursuing an accredited education and training. Hence the advent already of police training subjects in the curriculams of our universities and colleges. The sciences of physics, mathematics, chemistry, ballistics, graphology, psychology, etc., are important factors in the administration of law and order.

The ascendant trend gains impetus with a survey of up-to-date police methods and activities. Although originally intended for the purpose of protection against the occurence of major crimes, and the apprehension of perpetrators of such offenses, police departments are now called upon to perform every conceivable kind of duty. Law enforcement and traffic are major demands; however, under the heading of general service, a host of other responsibilities fall upon the police.

Canada's Big Part In War Described to Rotary Club

A timely tribute to Canada's outstanding effort in the war was delivered by John W. Shepperson at the meeting of the Upland Rotary club at noon today.

The Uplander termed the Canadian war effort in the light of its population the greatest of any of the Allied nations. The Canadian navy is large, its army is very sizeable and the industrial war-time production is stupendous, declared the popular speaker, a member of the club.

Mr. Shepperson was on a recent trip to Canada and his remarks were based on his observations as he traveled through the country. He was introduced by Will Mason, president of the club.
